ADAO National Spokesperson

"As national spokesperson for ADAO, I am thrilled to support their commitment to asbestos awareness. My father died from mesothelioma, a cancer only caused from asbestos, not as so often reported to be from a rock-n-roll lifestyle he abandoned more than a decade prior to his diagnosis. I want to dispel the myths and reveal the truth about the asbestos epidemic. The deadly mineral has a name, asbestos, but it also has a face in the patients, family and friends that it claims as victims."
Jordan Zevon, August 31, 2004
