Washington, DC ... TBD, 2004 --- The Asbestos Disease Awareness Organization (ADAO), an organization dedicated to serving as the voice of asbestos victims, today applauds Senator Harry Reid (NV) for introducing a resolution designating April 1st 2005 as "Asbestos Awareness Day." This resolution, proposed by the Asbestos Disease Awareness Organization, will raise public awareness about the dangers of asbestos exposure and asbestos related diseases.

"By introducing this Senate Asbestos Awareness Day Resolution, Senator Reid has taken an important step towards increasing asbestos awareness in this country," said Jordan Zevon, ADAO National Spokesperson, "We applaud Senate Reid's leadership and encourage his Senate colleagues to support this landmark resolution."

"Unknowingly, many innocent people have been occupationally or environmentally exposed to asbestos, and know little about the early warning symptoms of asbestos related diseases." said Linda Reinstein, Executive Director, Asbestos Disease Awareness Organization. "I'm optimistic that Congress will support asbestos awareness as the country works towards prevention, early diagnosis, new treatments and a cure. "
